7. Essays

Applicants are required to write a short essay, between 250 to 500 words, on any of the following given topics. Applicants may also develop their own, related topics.

Please carefully follow and include the following format items in your essay paper:

1. Length of the essay paper maximum one single-spaced paged – essays exceeding the given word numbers will not be presented to the application reviewing committee.
2. Use of a one-inch paper margin and Times New Roman 12-point font size.
3. No use of headers in the essay paper as the information will not be preserved once uploaded onto the online applications database.
4. At the top right edge corner of the essay paper, please include the following:
  - Line 1: Essay with the chosen topic name, and
  - Line 2: Your name, Father’s name, Tazkira number, Date of birth, and Province name.

Essay Topics:

1.	What knowledge, skills, and qualities do you think a leader should possess? If you have encountered leaders in your life who are especially effective, what made them effective?
2.	What would you like to accomplish in your life? What are your goals for your future?
3.	How would you use the leadership skills you will develop through the WLD program?
4.	How would you improve life for yourself, your community, or your country?

8. Letter of Recommendation

Each applicant should attempt to obtain three letters of recommendation. They can be written by individuals who know the applicant well and can speak to her suitability for the WLD program. Letters may be from educators, employers, family members, colleagues, or other individuals who know the participant well.
